

TO: Parents of Rising Seventh Graders
FROM: Mrs. Dart
SUBJ: Summer Reading List

Dear Parents,

Several of you have asked me to assemble a “required” summer reading list, which is in the second attachment to your e-mail. Please note that the only book that comes with a writing assignment is the book about Gilgamesh. The rest of the books reflect the civilizations of ancient history we will cover in the seventh grade: Mesopotamia, Israel, Egypt, Greece, and Rome. I will not be monitoring the students’ summer reading, as each family’s summer schedule is different. However, the children who accomplish the reading will be the best prepared for Omnibus I.

You know your reader best, so please feel free to adjust the number of books your child can comfortably read. If he or she needs a review of the Old Testament stories, be sure to either use a Bible storybook or your child’s Bible.

There are many, many books on these topics. If you can’t locate a title on the list, feel free to substitute another book. If you need more challenging material, please let me know. My e-mail is: mdart@veritasca.com

Happy reading!

Marti Dart
Omnibus Teacher